

Dallas, TX | May 2nd, 2018
Atlanta, GA | May 9th, 2018

Register Here

From active shooters in the workplace to natural disasters, it's critical to be prepared – and for your employees to be prepared – when an emergency occurs. By taking steps now to assess your risks and plan for the worst, you can protect your employees and ensure that your business weathers whatever crises come your way.

Event Agenda

8:30-8:40 a.m.	Overview and Objectives
8:40-9:00 a.m.	Resilience Leadership: Identifying Your Governance
9:00-9:30 a.m.	Resilience Leadership: Framework for Resilience: Strategic Guidance, Oversight and Implementation
9:30-9:50 a.m.	Break Out: Resilience Leadership
9:50-10:15 a.m.	Debrief
10:15-10:30 a.m.	Break
10:30-10:55 a.m.	Understanding Your Risks: How Do You Identify Your Hazards?
10:55-11:20 a.m.	Understanding Your Risks: Severe Weather, Natural Disasters, Active Threat/Workplace Violence, Medical Emergencies, Hazardous Substance and Chemical Releases, and Manmade Hazards
11:20-11:45 a.m.	Risk Mitigation: Available Tools to Assist in Risk Assessment
11:45-12:15 p.m.	Risk Mitigation: Appraising Resilience—How Do Your Resilience Activities Align with Organizational Priorities?
12:15-12:45 p.m.	Foundational Risk Assessment
12:45-1:45 p.m.	Lunch
1:45-2:15 p.m.	Evaluating Short and Long-term Impacts and Resulting Strategy
2:30-3:00 p.m.	Planning: What Plans Can Be Developed to Address Assessment Outcomes?
3:00-3:20 p.m.	Breakout: What Plans Does Your Organization Have in Place and How Are Those Plans Maintained?
3:20-3:35 p.m.	Debrief
3:35-4:00 p.m.	Public/Private Integration: Identify The Intersection Points Between Public and Private Organizations for Long Term Recovery
4:00 p.m.	Event Adjourns

Register Here